The Bible, the Supernatural and the Jews By McCandlish Phillips

The quest for mystical experiences has been going on since the beginning of time. This book, by an award-winning New York Times investigative journalist, McCandlish Phillips, will open your eyes to the vast and fascinating realm of Jewish spiritual lives. Because of the unique role of the Jewish people, according to God's promises, Jews are especially subjected to the supernatural. Scriptural illustrations abound in the pages of this comprehensive and well-researched work. You will learn some surprising facts.
