Play Me (Take a Chance) By Diane Alberts

Even the best-laid plans can go awry.

Single-mom Kiersten Worth knows a bottle of champagne and night of hot, no-strings-attached sex is the perfect solution to her jilted bride blues...and Garrett Kelly, long-time friend and her teenaged son's sexy basketball coach, is just the stud for the job.

Garrett wants more from the elusive temptress than a casual affair, but he never expects it to come in the form of an unexpected pregnancy. When he proposes an unorthodox solution—move in and raise their baby together—Kiersten has to decide whether to let down her guard and open her heart to the man who secretly loved her for years, or risk losing his tender embrace for good.

Editorial Review

Review

It was funny, sometimes sappy, and sometimes downright irritating. But, that's a good book, right? One that sparks emotions. --smutwhores.blogspot.com

A terrific, well-written, mellow and seductive story of familiarity turned to love. --RipeForReader.com

If you're looking for a good beach read or a feel-good romance, this is the book for you! --snarkymomreads.com

What a great read it was. High emotion and intense at times... Oh, and the chemistry between them and their schmexy scenes are positively delicious! -- read-love-blog.com

I liked how this story was totally believable and not all Too Good To Be True. Overall this was a hot read that I look forward to reading again in the near future! --paranormalwastelands.blogspot.com

It was a roller coaster to figure out if these two could ever get on the same page at the same time...I like Diane Alberts' writing style with humor and likable characters with good chemistry. --tammyandkimreviews.blogspot.com
