Editorial Review

From the Publisher

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?

Who doesn't? From magician to manufacturing magnate, financial columnist to real estate investor, poet to college dropout, here are the profiles of 17 ordinary people who started with nothing and became millionaires! These are the stories of people who overcame poverty or in some cases middle-class lifestyles to single-handedly beat overwhelming odds and achieve financial success. They may not all be household names, but their stories can serve as an inspiration to us all.

Praise for Rags to Riches:

There are as many paths to financial success as there are people who want to achieve it. This book shows that wealth is within the reach of just about anyone.

Tom Siedell, Managing Editor, Your Money

The most extraordinary thing about Rags to Riches is that it affirms how ordinary people have this tremendous, innate ability to achieve success and generate wealth if they put their minds to it.

John F. Wasik, Author, Retire Early and Live the Life You Want Now

Rags to Riches: Motivating Stories of How Ordinary People Achieved Extraordinary Wealth goes well beyond the quick-fix guru guidebooks to explore effective, long-term strategies that systematically build wealth. Its a fascinating, candid look at how every day, people reach their goals by turning challenge into opportunity.

Marla Brill, Publisher, Brills Mutual Funds Interactive

A fascinating and instructive collection of biographies.

Evan Simonoff, Associated Publisher/Editor-in-Chief, Financial Planning

Now readers everywhere can discover what Palm Beach Daily News readers have learned: Gail Liberman and Alan Lavine know everything there is to know about personal wealth how to get it and how to grow it. Gails weekly column in our paper tells affluent readers how to manage their fortunes. This book takes a step back and tells readers, in the words of millionaires who been there and done it, how to acquire a vast personal fortune.
