Sinful Needs (Wicked End Book 2) By Bella Jeanisse

This novel is for ADULTS ONLY. Explicit content.

Lead guitarist Brandon Knight and his girlfriend Mackenzie Winters haven't seen each other for two weeks, since she left the tour. It's been two weeks of trials and a bittersweet longing for each other. What they don't know is that they both have been faithful and have begun to think beyond mere lovers. When Brandon picks Mackenzie up at the airport in New Orleans, their love and lust explodes--just in time for the next leg of the band's tour to begin.

Brandon's bandmates, Scott and Austin, have used this time to explore their hidden feelings, and Austin finds that he wants more. With the memories of his "coming out" to his family still freshly seared in his mind, Scott refuses to acknowledge his love, fearful that they will be exposed to the world during the tour.

But, the tour is the least of Wicked End's worries. They must deliver the most incredible album of their careers under the strain of their complicated relationships, and in a move that was a surprise to everyone except Brandon, he's asked Mackenzie to accompany him out west during the recording.

Limits, emotional and physical, will be tested. Boundaries explored. They all will face changes, joyful and sometimes painful, that they never knew were possible, and when the lights come up, nothing will be the same again.
