Editorial Review

About the Author

I am a retired railroad worker and have raised seven children. I now live in a small town near one of my children, who is autistic. I have always loved America and thought what I see is the way things were, (boy was I wrong.) My story started when I watched a movie about 911. This upset me as it would anyone who considered themselves a patriot. The evidence was so overwhelming that this was absolutely no terrorist attack, that after a very depressing week and knowing my children are raising families of their own and have little time to research any of these facts, I thus concluded; since I was retired and had plenty of time, that I would work and research to find out these answers to help protect my children and their families from any upcoming disasters or events in which our future may hold and to do this in a Christian friendly manner, if I could. I first started researching our history, in which case I found more evidence of the same. The surprise was they were all connected to everything else and an unusual plot started to appear. Surprisingly UFO's and aliens were showing up in our Governments documented history, so I researched Aliens next. (Oh my God,) what I found was fascinating. Then this strange picture started to appear, so I research our bible and all other religion's books of all countries and next was ancient books, because they told more than the rewritten books of the last two thousand years, including our old testament which was rewritten in eight hundred BC under the instructions of Jehovah. I researched the Greek Gods of our past, giants, Nephilim, big foot, black magic and all ancient cultures. I listened to all speakers who were experts in their field on every subject, all scientists who would dare speak of any of this strange stuff and all videos which carried any answers and anything else which might bring another piece of this puzzle together. I stopped one day with over a ten foot stack of just notes alone and realized that I could think of no subject in which I have not already covered. After two years of over forty hours a week, I finally found the startling answers which I was so desperately searching and wrote them in this book, to jump start your search and your path in life.
