IF IT DIE...AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY by Andre Gide, Translated by Dorothy Bussy By Andre Gide

Here for your delectation is the SPECTACULAR & RARE-----IF IT DIE...AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY by Andre Gide, Translated by Dorothy Bussy. Reading his books make me giddy..... Andre Gide is an author's author -- winner of the 1947 Nobel Prize in Literature; a favourite of notable scribes like Yukio Mishima and Donald Richie; one of the fathers of the modern confessional autobiography. If It Die is an honest study, an insightful and delving account of Gide's early life, from childhood until his engagement to be married. André Paul Guillaume Gide; 22 November 1869 - 19 February 1951) was a French author and winner of the Nobel Prize in literature in 1947. Gide's career ranged from its beginnings in the symbolist movement, to the advent of anticolonialism between the two World Wars. Gide exposes to public view the conflict and eventual reconciliation between the two sides of his personality, split apart by a straitlaced education and a narrow social moralism. Gide's work can be seen as an investigation of freedom and empowerment in the face of moralistic and puritanical constraints, and gravitates around his continuous effort to achieve intellectual honesty. His self-exploratory texts reflect his search of how to be fully oneself, even to the point of owning one's sexual nature, without at the same time betraying one's values. His political activity is informed by the same ethos. HIGHLY RECOMMENDED!!! This is the softcover only stated, undated RANDOM EDITION. Both the cover and the book are in excellent condition. There are no rips, tears, markings, etc.---and the pages and binding are tight (see photo). **Note: All books listed as FIRST EDITIONS are stated by the publisher in words or number lines--or--only stated editions that include only the publisher and publication date.
